

The Dingwall-Beloe Horological Lecture

Heavenly advisors: the astrological purpose of public clocks in Italy

Marisa Addomine

Thursday 22 November 2018

17.30 for the 18.00–19.00 lecture, followed by a reception
BP Lecture Theatre, British Museum

Free, booking essential

britishmuseum.org/dingwall
020 7323 8181

Dingwall-Beloe Lecture
The Horological Study Room
Britain, Europe and Prehistory
British Museum
Great Russell Street
London WC1B 3DG

Pietro Adamo de' Micheli, Della Dichiaratione dell'Horologio di Mantova. Frontispiece print, 1547.

This event was founded with funds bequeathed to the British Museum by former Assistant Keeper of Printed Books in the British Library Dr Eric Dingwall, and to the Clockmakers' Company by the noted horological collector Mr Reginald Beloe. It is intended that these annual lectures should make new contributions to our understanding of the history of horology, at an international level.

The Worshipful Company of Clockmakers

